Information Given or offered:

Families were welcomed and signed in on the front porch of Pampa High School at Commons and Rotunda. Families were directed to the rotunda where PJHS and PHS art student displays were located. In the commons were 5 sections of the following craft tables: Chihuly Art, Nail and String, Feet Painting, Vegetable Prints, and Steam Robot Drawings.

Cookies and water were available. Families were able to do free and simple crafts at each of the 5 sections. District wide self-portraits from students and staff surrounded the stage. Everyone seemed to have a good time. Chihuly art lasted longer than time of event due to toaster oven use. Families were free to come and go during the event.
