Families received a schedule of classes for the night. Classrooms were visited from 5:30-5:45 PM. At this time families brought their students to the gym to watch Zootopia. Officer Troy Green spoke to the kids about staying safe at school and the importance of telling a trusted adult when they see something that is not right before the movie. Students received a bottle of water and a bag of popcorn. Parents and families were then free to attend classes in which they also received popcorn. Families were then free to attend the class of their choice: Future Ready Careers, How to keep Your Child Safe, Bringing out the best in your kids, Pampa ISD Bilingual Program, The Well Rounded Child and Setting Parental Controls: How to protect your children online. When classes were over families picked up students at the gym and they were thanked for coming.
