Handouts were given and a time for open house was decided at 5:30-7:00 PM. VIPS will be contacted in regards to volunteer opportunity to welcome and sign in parents. Families will visit their students classroom from 5:30-5:45. Families will drop children off at the gym where the movie Zootopia will be viewed by the children. Troy will have the projector and movie will be on Netflix. The music teacher as well as the PE teacher will be in the gym with the children. STUCO, NHS & SADD sponsors will be notified of opportunity for their students to have some volunteer hours if needed. The PPD SRO will speak with the students before the movie. Popcorn and water will be served. Lamar has water for parents. C. Gee will contact Happy State Bank on possibility of small water bottle donation for the children. While students are in the gym, the parents will attend parent classes. We discussed what problems are specific to Lamar ~ situations that have come up, benchmark results, campus plan, etc..

The following classes were decided upon: Future Ready/Careers with Daniel Trejo of Accolade, How to keep your child safe with Sheriff M. Ryan, A parenting class with Pastor Sergio Urrutia, Pampa ISD Bilingual information class, The Well Rounded Child with Lora Baggerman, and Setting parental controls on devices with Melody Baker. Spanish will be available for each and every class either by a Spanish speaking speaker or a translator.
