under latest news or email
charlene.gee@pampaisd.net.
- ◆ Sign up for TxEIS check your child's grades, discipline, and attendance. Forms are available in the school office.
- ◆ Regular two-way, meaningful communication to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.

The Title 1 program is designed to meet the specific needs of the eligible children attending Travis Elementary. Title 1 programs are also designed to improve the educational opportunities of underachieving children and help them succeed in the regular program, attain grade level proficiency, and improve their achievement in the basic and more advanced skills.

Title 1 support programs include parental and family involvement, counseling, health care, and other social services. In addition, certain educational programs are available to pupils who live in target areas and attend private schools and to neglected children who reside in institutions designated by the Texas Education Agency.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In order to become informed about the law, parents are encouraged to attend the Title 1 Open House and to participate in each campus. Through active participation, parents and families, teachers, and administrators share in the responsibility of improving student achievement for all students.

PARENT'S RIGHTS

Parents and families have the right to a copy of the law and an explanation of policy. Parents and families also have the right to give input into the development of the Title 1 program, its implementation and evaluation, and to have activities that are specifically designed to help them help their children improve their academic performance. Every Student Succeeds Act requires parents and families of children who receive Title 1 services must be involved in the decisions regarding how these funds are allocated for parent and family involvement activities.
