Families were welcomed and signed in at the Wilson Gym Doors by VIPS Kerrick Horton, Stacie Reeves and Paul Hearn and were given their compact, policy and Go Green sign up form. Charlene Gee and Norma Miranda signed out and gave Spanish speaking families 21 headsets for translation purposes borrowed from the Pampa ISD Bilingual Department. Families were directed into the gym for the Title I Meeting. Keana Daughtry, Wilson Principal, went over what Title I is, programs that benefit students and how it works. The Wilson power point also went over the following: the Parent Involvement Plan for Wilson 2017-2018 and the activities provided to Wilson families, methods of communication and the way parent and families can stay informed, a list of materials and services provided to help students succeed, a list of ways they can be involved and then went over the Wilson compact Student, School, and Family pledges. The meeting ended with the mission statement of Wilson Elementary. Families were dismissed to classrooms to meet with teachers. Hotdogs, chips and water served on the Wilson front lawn.

Families were thanked for coming and all seemed to have a great time.
